INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Board of Directors
Turkish Philanthropy Funds, Inc.
216 East 45th Street, 7th Floor
New York, NY 10017

We have audited the accompanying statements of financial position of Turkish Philanthropy Funds, Inc. ("TPF") as of June 30, 2012 and 2011 and the related statements of activities, cash flows, and functional expenses for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the TPF's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audits in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatements. An audit includes consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of TPF's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, and assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of TPF as of June 30, 2012 and 2011 and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Grants to charitable organizations are expensed with approval of the Board of Directors of TPF.

(e) CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS

TPF considers all highly liquid instruments with an initial maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

(f) INVESTMENTS

Investments are stated at fair values. Unrealized gains and losses are included in the change in net assets in the accompanying statements of activities. Purchases and sales of investments are recorded on a trade date basis.

(g) FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS – FASB ASC 820 – *Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures, establishes a common definition for fair value to be applied to U.S. generally accepted accounting principles requiring use of fair value, establishes a framework for measuring fair value, and expands disclosures about such fair value measurements. It also establishes a hierarchy for ranking the quality and reliability of the information used to determine fair values by requiring that assets and liabilities carried at fair value be classified and disclosed in one of the following three categories:

- Level 1: Unadjusted quoted market prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.
- Level 2: Unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for similar assets or liabilities, unadjusted quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in markets that are not active, or inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability.
- Level 3: Unobservable inputs for the asset or liability.

(h) FUNCTIONAL ALLOCATION OF EXPENSES

The costs of providing various programs and supporting services have been summarized on a functional basis in the Statements of Functional Expenses. Accordingly, certain costs have been allocated between the programs and supporting services.

(i) USE OF ESTIMATES

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States requires management to make certain estimates and assumptions that may affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.
